Feature Story July in NYC

July: MoMA PS1 Warm Up

The little brother of the Museum of Modern Art, the MoMA PS1, is more unconventional and progressive. In the summer months, there is a warm-up party in the garden of the museum on Saturdays. This is where the best DJs hang out and you should definitely go for lunch to get in.

July 11-12 (Tentative): Manhattanhenge 2019

Manhattanhenge is a fascinating event that occurs only twice a year. The sunset falls in a straight line through the skyscrapers of Manhattan's East-West streets. The weather needs to cooperate on this day as well. You will need clear sky to be lucky enough to catch the event and experience it to its full potential.

Recharge and Soak up the Sun in Central Park

It is great for the hot and sticky days in July, as you will always find some shade to rest a little. Many New Yorkers use the green field to lounge, relax and escape the big-city bustle for a while.

Mondays: Bryant Park Film Festival

Once a week Bryant Park is turned into an open-air cinema free of charge. Behind the Public Library, the green grass is suddenly filled with blankets and people enjoying the warm summer evenings and watching one of the many movies that are put on during the time-not to be missed!

July-August: Lincoln Center Festival

The extraordinary festival will show works and performances by the most renowned artists from all over the world within the three weeks where it takes place.

From May to August: Shakespeare in the Park

Every Tuesday through Sunday you can watch two of the world's most famous plays in Central Park. In recent years, some stars have made it to this stage.

July 19-20: "Pinknic" on Randall's Island

This year, it will be held on 19th and 20th of July on Randall's Island. With lots of pink and a lot of rosé wine, this is going to be an event you don't want to miss out on. Live music and incredible views of Manhattan are only two of the features that make this event special. Tickets must be bought in advance. <https://pinknic.com/>

Concerts at MoMA's Sculpture Garden

Every Sunday in New York in July, the famous Museum of Modern Art hosts free concerts in the museum's beautiful Sculpture Garden. The event series is called "Summergarden". It starts at 20:00 o'clock, is opened however already at 19:00 o'clock. The museum is closed during this time.

How to Make the Best Potato Salad

Ingredients

6 medium white potatoes or Yukon golds about 2 1/2 to 3 pounds, quartered
 3 tablespoons white vinegar
 2 large celery stalks diced
 6 green onions diced
 5 hard boiled eggs peeled
 1 1/2 cups Miracle Whip or mayonnaise
 1 tablespoon yellow mustard
 1 1/2 teaspoons celery seed
 kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
 paprika for garnish

Instructions

–Bring potatoes to a boil in large pot of cold water that’s been liberally salted. Reduce the heat to medium high or a lightly rolling boil and cook for 10-15 minutes or until the potatoes are easily pierced with a pairing knife. Drain and let cool until just able to handle.

 –Peel the skins from the potatoes and cut into large diced pieces. Transfer the warm potatoes to a large mixing bowl and sprinkle with the white vinegar and stir. Allow the potatoes to cool, about 15 minutes. Add the celery and green onions. Chop 4 of the hard boiled eggs and add to the potato mixture.
 –In a medium bowl, mix the Miracle Whip or mayonnaise, yellow mustard, celery seed and salt and pepper. Mix well into the potato mixture and season with more salt and pepper if needed. Slice the last egg into thin slices and place the slices on top of the salad. Sprinkle with paprika if desired. Chill for at least 1 hour or overnight before serving.
